House District 55

When asked for his accomplishments in the state legislature, Randy Ramey points to the kinds of measures that affect people's everyday lives - reducing water bills and finding money for law enforcement, for instance. His efforts on these types of important local issues make Ramey, a Carol Stream Republican, an effective lawmaker. Democrat Broc Montgomery, of Bartlett, and Green Party candidate Dan Kairis, of South Elgin, challenge, but neither offers the value to the district that a third term for Ramey could afford.
